

Consignor Contract

If listed items do not sell (initial):

Donate my items: _____ Return my items: _____

1. Initial selling price and subsequent discounts will be controlled by Up & Down Closet. We reserve the right to run sales and promotions as we see fit.
2. Unless other arrangements are made with Management, Consignors receive 40% of each item's selling price, minus a shared deduction for credit or debit card fees.
3. Checks are issued upon request, as often as you prefer. PLEASE NOTE: It is the Consignor's responsibility to be aware of the account balance and request payouts. Given the large number of people who consign with us, we are unable to contact you when items in your account sell. You may check your account balance online at www.MyResaleWeb.com. You will need your consignor ID number, which is in the left hand corner of this contract. You are also welcome to contact us for your balance. You may request all or part of your account balance or use all or part of it as store credit.
4. Payouts must be requested within six months from the last day of the 90 day consignment period or they will become property of Up & Down Closet.
5. Consignors who opt to pick up unsold items to avoid deep discounts must do so within the initial 90 day consignment period. Up & Down Closet will provide a detailed list of items remaining in inventory, but the Consignor is responsible for finding items and bringing them to the desk to be removed from inventory.
6. At your intake appointment we will inspect your items, accepting those we feel we can sell. If at any later point we discover flaws that make an item unmarketable, the item will be donated without notification to the Consignor.
7. The Up & Down Closet makes every effort to protect your items, but we will not be liable for consigned items damaged or lost by fire, theft, try-on, smoke or water damage or natural disaster. The Up & Down Closet will remain blameless against any harm and the Consignor will not be compensated.

We appreciate you trusting us with your consignment and would value your feedback about any way we can make our consignment process better. Thank you!
